Report | Venture Base Camp on Finance 101: Basics of finance for startups| Thursday & Friday | 20th & 21st October 2022

About the Event

Venture Base Camp (VBC) aimed at startups to learn exactly what you need to communicate about yourself and your business, by knowing the basics of business finance. This two days workshop is designed to train entrepreneurs and business owners on how to make better projections about the business based on financial data. It also gave a brief overview on tax compliance, included some case studies and group presentations.

Content

DAY 1:

The workshop included the right balance of talks to understand concepts and group discussions, or activities to learn the practical implementation of the discussed concepts.

Topics included were:

- Types of business entities in India
- Understanding financial statements
- Estimating cashflows and basics of business valuation

DAY2:

The second day began with a talk on taxes and compliance followed by open discussions. Startups were asked to prepare financial statements of their own companies and present it as part of investor pitches.

It was indeed insightful session. No negative remarks for this

It was great and it will be good if incorporated such talks during initial years of incorporating firm.

offline sessions are the best, hence please consider scheduling them near to weekdays (and not weekends) for enabling outside participants to travel at lesser fares.

Excellent speaker, excellent execution
